

What? The Royal British Legion Central Brittany and the commune of Saint-Aignan

DIAMOND JUBILEE FETE.

To celebrate the 60 year reign of Queen Elizabeth II

Where? The Village football field, St Aignan (near Mur de Bretagne).

When? Sunday 27th May 2012. Starting at noon

What's Happening? Well.....

Crepes, Sausages, Breakfast rolls etc. will be available from noon.

The Fete will be officially opened by Monsieur le Maire at 2pm.

Free Entrance

1952 costume is optional. Handmade crown and coronation dress design competitions, for all ages.

“Anne de Bretagne” cake competition.

Go to our website for more info on all competitions:

<http://rblbrittany.free.fr> or telephone 02 97 39 60 69

Tea shop & bar, ice cream bicycle, fun dog show, pony rides, model railway exhibition, hand and face painting as well as Arts and Crafts, plants, greetings cards, book stalls and games for all to play.

Grand Tombola with many prizes: Ferry tickets, Meals for two, magazine subscription, and much, much more.

PLEASE SUPPORT THE ROYAL BRITISH LEGION

*Proceeds will be shared between the Poppy Appeal and village associations
RBL Branch number BR3534 French Association number 0562004579*